1934

1/17/34 New monetary policy. Most interesting three months. I became convinced of the soundness of the reasoning. Numerous discussions. I am trying to write up my ideas on the subject. Am spending much of the week in Hartford trying to write up this monetary stuff.

1/25/34 Writing every evening except on weekends when I read and marked a set of papers on business law ... Monetary policy

2/2/34 Monetary policy. Written 118 pages. Dinner party, includes "Bill" Douglas

2/6/34 Writing. Constance typed 22 pages. Charlotte review.

2/14/34 Constance and Helen Underhill typing. To working on third section. Bitterly cold winter. Around New Years for several days 15 – 20 degrees below zero and much wind at times. Long Island Sound is frozen pretty well with much skating – out to the breakwater in the harbor

2/16/34 Comfortable, writing at Y

2/20/34 Tues. Heavy snow storm. At Y so I could get to work. Phoned home, all well.

2/21/34 New Haven had 22" snow. Problems. Could not work, wrote etc.

3/2/34 Feb weather records broken. Went home, 21st [22nd?] to New Haven; 23^d trolley to Spring Glen, bus to Mt. Carmel. From there you walked. Snow in back yard 7' high, foot more later ... Yesterday audition WTIC radio. Next week give a 15 minute review of the week on the year of the new administration

3/14/34 Radio talk last week, got it in New Haven and Long Island. Tonight going to talk on the farm problem.

4/3/34 Gave four 4 radio talks, then time sold. List talks. 3. Legal background of the N. R. A. from Supreme Court decision. 4 Russia + Japan & Manchuria

5/4/34 In mid April talk to Hartford Chapter Am. Institute of Banking

5/11/34 Clouds of dust from the Dakotas

5/14/34 Dust cleared about dusk and Saturday a fine clear day.

5/21/34 5/22; 5/31, 6/7 Eddy Bros.: business

5/31/34 Lunch with C. B. and Dr. Ives. He thinks one of these days a European war will break out with Germany driving through Austria.

6/12/34 [Illustration] Herald Tribune 6/12/34 map of drought. Weather chaotic

6/9/34 I finished marking exams in the course on business operations and international trade

6/20/34 Re history of building, debt

6/21/34 Talk on calls. Portland CT. Towns' debt to build the railroad

6/25/34 Middletown CT re bank stocks

6/26 -27-28/34 Business

7/3/34 Farm commodity prices ... Germany civil disturbances ... Hitler support ... Germany lives off world trade in manufactured goods ... Violence hurts ...

7/17 & 18/34 Business discussions

7/23, 7/26 & 7/24 Business

7/27/34: Dollfuss [Austrian Chancellor] was murdered by Nazis. Civil war?

8/13/34: Shortly suppressed. Italy border force. Hitler role Germany?

8/17/34: Am trying to lay out a course on corporations ... Tomorrow am going to be reading some psychology papers for Elliott Smith

8/20/34 [illustration] Drought map

8/8/34 Business

8/20/34 Ford giving 20 miles per gallon of 14 cent gas

8/29/34 [clippings re cost relief in cities] Not very bullish for NY bonds. N.R.A. has objected to companies moving from N.Y. to take advantage of lower costs. Utterly non-economic, goods should be made where costs are low.

9/19/34: Business

9/24/34 Stubborn textile strike, mills north and south ... pickets ... CT troops out

9/28/34 Eddy Bros.: Going to cover New Haven etc. Hartford about 1 day a week

8/3/34 Not satisfied with my job, trying to find another

10/24/34: This German mark is worthless since the grand inflation – only a souvenir of the disorder that came over the post war world (mark 1000 attached to page) ... Business travel

10/26/34 New Haven Harvard Club. Theodore Sizer president this year, laid out list fine speakers. Speaker, best meeting, 70 or so there.

10/20/34 Job hunt is exciting. Possibility – [William O.] Douglas in the law school is heading an investigation for the Stock Exchange control Board into Protective Committees. Job should last a year

11/20/34, 12/6/34 Job interviews

1/29/35 Pursuing other jobs. ... Securities and Exchange Comm. Seems quite possible I went to Washington three weeks ago over it. Prof. Douglas recommended me for a job in his investigation of protective committee practices ...

2/18/35 Hired as an "Investigator Analyst" and assigned to a protective committee study with headquarters in New York. The S. E.C. has the twentieth floor of 120 Broadway and I have a small office 2012. ... Ground work ... Delay ...

2/26/35 Last night my first at 531 W. 124th St. with Herr Otto Dierck.

3/26/35 Race riots in the Harlem last week from which 3 people died and many had injuries, some rioting was within a few blocks of where I am staying [clipping map, N.Y. Times 3/24/35]

3/24/35 My room at the Dierck's is $3.50 pr week: there is no style, but everything is clean and comfortable and roomy enough. They give me breakfasts, while we talk in German, and solid breakfasts for 25 c per diem that I am here. Lunch and supper I eat at restaurants wherever I am. Theoretically I allow myself 30 c for lunch and 25 c for supper, practically this is the spot in the budget where money can be saved.

3/22/35 I was from the start assigned to work on foreign situations, and we made preliminary inquiry into several Columbian, Cuban and Brazilian. It was evident we would be forced to include in our study the Foreign Bondholders Protective Council. [description] Our authorization never came through ... It was then thought that Keuger and Toll would be a proper object for study. ... authorization lacking. ... We were assigned to an investigation into the Strauss protective committee practice. [description] The resolutions covering Kreuger & Toll came through [description]

3/27/35 The protective committees in Kreuger & Toll present a picture as distinctive as the company

Copy: Letter 7/26/32 to Garrard Winston, Esq. from "Grayson" (G. M. P. Murphy) re Peruvian Loan Bonds [humorous]

4/11/35 Monday a sheet went around the office instructing us all to have political endorsement in the shape of a letter from a representative or better from a senator [problem]

4/12/35 Kreuger and Toll ... Made a page outline of the case, then expanded that into a 32 page topical outline ... then tried to carry through the interests of the principal figures ... Finally I drew off, as I'd done many times before, the salient points in the case ... Douglas had had a heavy day and was tired and it was 6:30 then. We went to the Columbia Club on 43d St. near Stern Bros. where we had a most excellent dinner and talked over the case at length. ... hopes hearing ... interesting three weeks ahead

4/16/35 [N. Y. Times Clipping] a graphic account of the extent of relief

4/16/35, 4/17/35 [clippings, illustrations] Dust storms last year and this are one of the calamities of our times.

4/18/35 Should be outlining the book I'd like to write about Kreuger

4/11/35 Clark and I called on Dulles. Dulles went over the material we had requested ... interested in what he had to say about the problem of transferring money and collecting money in a place like Hungary

4/24/35 Recent British ideas on present day problems: monetary and economic [6 pages] ... We wonder as to the effects of national monetary policy on the activity of industry [3]

4/30/35 Douglas, Clark and I went over to Sullivan & Cromwell's office and had an hour and a half talk with Col. Murphy and J. F. Dulles ... a general discussion of the possible hearing (and) what it would cover and its results. It gave them a chance to state their objections, which they did very emphatically [5 pages]

5/17/35 [N. Y. Times clipping Passamaquoddy] It does not seem economically defensible according to any possible figuring of profit on investment. As an experiment it should be interesting if costly

1934 Foreign Trade [4 pages, clipping]

5/8/35 Foreign Protective Bond Holders Council ... decided to go ahead with the investigation ... I am to bring out to Douglas everything I can

5/10/35 ... Their old minutes are rather better than most in that they reveal a good deal about what they have done and why

7/22/35 Kreuger & Toll hearing [4 pages]
8/2/35 Have had interesting week working on foreign bonds again ... Cuba ... call we had on Chase National Bank. Chauncey thought I was most diplomatic in substantially calling Geiger, (Chase V. P.) a liar in very polite parlance, after Geiger had said they had no files on some subjects. ... When the files were made available they included the ones I wanted to see – so one can't assume too much sincerity, even from a V. P. of the biggest bank in the world.
8/3/35 [Joining assistants late night party]
8/4/35 Sunday Stayed in New York ... explore [postcard the Cloisters]

6/2/37 Review of securities registration statement General Tire & Rubber Co

6/16/37 One of the great difficulty in giving the registration statements adequate treatment is the lack of technical knowledge on the part of the examiner who handles it (myself for example)

7/9/37 Examining these registration statements brings out their different aspects: from the 1928 viewpoint, which is still probably the attitude of the underwriters, the prospective should be a sales document: from a broader philosophical viewpoint it should be a fair statement of the business into which the purchaser of a security is to place his money.

BOOK 4 Porter Mission to Greece January 13 1947 – March 22 1947

82 written, notebook pages in ring binder 9 ½ x 8". Includes entries on work; news, opinions and discussions on Greek situation; personal experiences. Excerpts from entries:

1/23: Conversation Sir Thomas Gregory, Gardner Patteson (the currency commission), Glendinning & FFL: They emphasized the disorder in Greek public affairs ... the civil service is in very bad condition ... the result is a staff of ill paid civil servants and a swarm of pensioners. ... There is no feeling in the business community of group responsibility. Gregory and Patterson felt that close control of economic matters by foreigners ... would be necessary if Greece is to affect recovery ...

Lippincott at lunch was very pessimistic as to the Greeks being able to avoid anarchy ..

1/30: A prime need in Greece is ending what is a slow tempo civil war with outside support for both sides. Its existence forces military expense on the Government which the economy of the country and the Government budget can't carry ...

2/6: ... Discussion of the place of the Greek Orthodox church in the community ...

2/7: To Bank of Greece 9:15 to look over confirmed credits for "reconstruction items" in checking on suggestion that Ex-imbank [?] might take them over ... Office & on cable on phasing of import needs. Patterson, members of Currency Com in at 11:00 talk in preparation for conference with Greek Ministers tomorrow ... At 12 left with most of the Mission for Piraeus, riding in engineers compartment in rear of train with Vrangulis, the owner of the line which appeared well kept up, ties rails stations etc. Then all through the car shops ... employees busily at work rebuilding cars .. Went to the harbor aboard a tender ... small motor driven vessel that carried some 15 folk ... Many wharfs had been bombed badly, the coal hoist ruined, but the port could do business ... went through a cement plant, in operating condition and only running at 10% of capacity because of limited demand – with the need for wharf repair right near by. The stalled economy. ...

the electric plant ...It had limped along plagued by labor trouble, running far below its capacity with Bulgar Co [?] to labor folk keeping work disorganized (according to the managers)

2/8: A 2 ½ hour meeting with a group of Greek ministers on estimates of the 1947 Greek balance of payments. I explained our ideas

2/10: An airplane trip over the Peloponessus in which we covered most things of current economic interest ...

2/11: John Coffock was in the meeting with the Greek ministers (2/9) and has dealt with them for quite a while. [Discussion of amount of U. S. Aid]

2/20: Conference with Helinis [?] who has ministries of finance and also supply on olive oil and later in the day on budget. ...

2/22: ... Yesterday we examined food us and availability in detail – one is really horrified by the feebleness with which the Government approaches its food, foreign exchange and budget problems – or lack of will to deal with their more difficult aspects at all ...[8 problems, including effects of political rightest views]

2/26: Dinner with Zolotas and another man, a member of Parliament. [Opinion on German, Italian occupation]

2/27: Gardner [opinion neither Gov. troops nor Andarte cared much about fighting each other. Violence apt to be by irregular rightest organizations and Communist reprisal. ...]

3/5: Last Saturday newspaper man called me up [re knowledge of aid. FFL reiterated No] ... Glendenning ... [on report] the U. K. had asked the U. S. to help out in a big way – taking over the foreign exchange cost of the Greek Army and helping in a large scale in addition.

3/9: The British Economic Mission by the statement of its head General Clark has been a failure ...

3/12: Listened to a BBC broadcast of Truman's speech on aid to Greece, so garbled we could get little of it, but he obviously offered a large amount

3/13 : The group in Lutraki ... The analysis of what ask Greece and what can be done about it is something to fill ones days. The group works well together ...

3/18: An hour's talk with Pippinellis ... political adviser to the King ... He wanted to know about the procedure in handling the bill concerning aid to Greece, and what I thought of its probability of passage and the time it would take. Then we went on to talk about many issues ...

3/20 After work today there was a meeting of the Christian Social Council of Athens held today that I might attend ...

3/21: Called on Sofulis (?) the liberal leader with Ailes & Roach and Basil Gaudicas as introducer and interpreter ... We had listened to Maximus (?) at length this morning ... On the curb, an appropriate place, Patterson talked about policy re gold sales ...

4/9/52: [Opinions: new defense minister;] I sent a two and a half page letter back to Bill Roundtree via confi. pouch today covering developments so far ... This is a rather unbelievable operation with the MSA/W men willing to shut down work on productive works almost finished, in the name of economic stability. The situation shows the reaction from the over generous aid in FY 50 and 51, carried out by "hard money" men with no first hand knowledge of Greece and an intense intellectual scorn for the MSA/G people and for the Greek government people. ... The decision should have been reached much earlier that substantial indu'l development should follow agricultural development. It seems likely that the generous aid in earlier years led to the initiation of expensive projects, and that now with diminished aid their completion will prevent work on agr. projects very important to put Greece on a going concern basis. ... It is sad to think that this flows out of the idea that the containment of inflation and by restricting the amount of currency in circulation is so necessary that all other considerations must give way to it.

Dear Anne and Lu, Re Dad's diaries/journals

Allen came in around 11:30 this morning and said "Got anything for Anne?" He was about to take the balance of 06-07 wood down to Anne and Joe. I just had 1 more of Dad's notebook to list so I persuaded him to stop back after lunch and pick up Anne's list. Anne and I are due to have lunch at Lindseys in Wareham at noon next Thursday April 12. I hope we can talk about Dad's journal then. I wish we three could be lunching. Anyway I want to hear your thoughts. Might any of Dad's journals be of interest to the Truman or other library?

Second: I have many of Dad's letters, many very similar to these journals. Your ideas?

Third please think about possible family interest. The early journals include considerable family history. Would you like copies of such entries? Would any of his travel descriptions interest? How about postcards?

Family letter 4/20/07 Re: Your possible interest in some of Dad's papers

These are handwritten records of various years 1935-1965 on lined notebook papers with inserted clippings, postcards, leaflets, etc. in 10 three ring binders about 7" wide by 10" high. Starting the first notebook March 27 1933 Dad wrote:

"My age and generation lives such eventful years that a diary ought to be of some interest to turn back to and perhaps to reread when the current of time slows down from seething rapids to a more placid stream"

His description later was "pages for the note book in which I sometimes keep comments on things of interest."

As I inch through my 80s, I have wanted to see if any of Dad's papers would be of interest to an archive and to decide what to do with them generally. Some years ago I typed up copies of many of Dad's entries, especially family subjects 1933-43, and sent copies around the family with mini biographies of Dad and Mother. This spring I copied additional extracts from the ten notebooks for Anne and Lu. Last week Thursday we had lunch together at Lindsey's in Wareham (almost ! a surprise for me to see Lu) and we talked about the notebooks. We agreed it might be a good idea to check with our kids to see if anyone would want to keep any of the original papers. I wonder if my siblings or anyone would want Xerox copies of any of Dad's original entries, or have an interest in his travel descriptions or postcards, etc.

POSSIBLE ARCHIVE INTEREST

1. Diary March 1933 to February 1934 gives a picture of the effects of the depression on one man. A 1911 Harvard graduate he had chosen poultry farming,- the outdoor life - for the sake of his asthma, quit it for the same reason, and soon went into selling securities on commission. In 1933 he had a wife and four daughters living on his former farm in Mt. Carmel, town of Hamden, outside New Haven, CT and little income to meet mortgage and living expenses. He describes security sales work for Eddy Brothers of Hartford, correcting student papers for Yale professors, job searches, opinions on the times, – such entries were mixed with entries on the family, gardening, reading, nature, health, friends etc.
2. Diary February 1935 – November 1935 Accounts of work as an Investigative Analyst at the Securities and Exchange Commission's New York City office working in William O Douglas's group investigating Foreign Bondholders' Protective committees. Dad describes study of records, discussion with Douglas of the case of Kreuger and Toll bonds, interviews with those being investigated, such as John Foster Dulles, for the handling of funds solicited from bondholders to try and recover their investments, preparing for hearings, the hearings in Washington, etc. Entries include details of cost of living in New York, activities there, health and some account of visits home.
3. Diary January – March 1947 Work as a member of the U. S. Mission, headed by Paul A. Porter, sent to Greece to study the situation there and the need for U. S. Aid. The work described included discussions on the Greek economy and political situation, accounts of investigative trips, meetings with businessmen and officials and entries on life in Athens, sightseeing, etc. Also Spring 1952: A few entries on opinions when a member of a small mission to look over the Greek economic situation.

4. September 1950 – April 1951 Description work as a member of U. S. delegation to a General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) Conference in Torquay, England. As head of a negotiating team, Dad's entries focused on work with Turkish delegation and included summaries of negotiations. This journal included some clippings and inserts on the Conference and many accounts of sightseeing trips in England with postcard and leaflet inserts.

BALANCE OF JOURNALS: COMMENTS ON THINGS OF INTEREST

Most of Dad's records include some comments on family members, though often not much detail on his observations or opinions. He has continuing comments on books read, to read and wished-to-write; nature; church activities. In early Washington years Dad often wrote of conversations on current affairs that he had at lunches during the work week and with friends. The bulk of his "Of Interest" notebooks were on travels, for example with many pages describing plane trips. After he married Katherine, his journals gave hour by hour accounts of many trips in southeastern states, their 1961-62 trips in Europe when they were based in Geneva, and trips to New England. His last notebook is bulked with his medical records.

Dear Lu,

Thanks for your good visit and items of family history. It was so good to see you so lively and now read your account of your energetic visit with Anne and Joe, also in Orford. Continuing to browse your collection. I saved my carbon paper letters for their details of the kids. I should have shown you Claire's and Kay's book edition of Mead's life. Family papers and photos here helped us. Notes on your papers

The tribute to Dad printed for his funeral. So fine.

An outline Lincoln genealogy (Scott had scanned a copy of this last year);

The Leominster Daily Enterprise, August 3 1906 with an article and photo of Mary

Ann Lincoln at 100 years old. (some of her diary is in Aunt Con's Family Glimpses)

A handwritten small, old cookbook labeled "___? A Holt" ... "a gill of fine sugar" etc.

Album of postcards, mostly New England, book plate, Abigail Treat Holt - She was the wife of our Grandmother Lillian (Holt) Treadwell's brother Albert Holt. Abigail and Albert were parents of our Cousin Sidney Holt. This album included oval photos of two young men, one dated 1893. They might be Cousin Sidney and his brother who was drowned in a sailing accident? Postcards sell well on E-bay.

Album with travel photos - c 3 1/2 x 4 1/2"; the few labels inc. Bluefield W. VA; Ashville, NC; Natural Bridge, Va. Unidentified? Probably will toss.

Album - "Photographs" About fourth full. Includes a man and woman in mid-life, probably Albert and Abigail Holt, houses, horses. The Travel

Club, Tour of 1911 - Rome. Extra photos inc some US Southern photos, some snow, one with tent by lake (Cousin Sidney Holt was a camper?) Maybe a photo of the Holt House, Cold Spring St., New Haven, CT. & Mt. Carmel mountain in Hamden.

An envelope with possibly valuable postage stamps: Albert Holt had large, valuable stamp albums. Another E-bay project?

Letters Dad had written home from Greece when he was working for The American Mission For Aid To Greece. We talked about the collection possibly from the small bureau in the what I thought was an upstairs study. Most of these letters were written home to you and Mother January to December 1949, one and a half inches worth of flimsy, yellowed paper. There are his letters home January to May in 1948, about three fourths of an inch worth, and probably a few letters or parts of letters other years. Also there is a file with letters to Aunt Con and Uncle Farley. about two per month for the years 1947, 1948 and 1949, She typed some copies. Dad often asked them to share their letters with Henry and Janet and Ed and Grace. I have saved similar to his letters to me

I probably will discard the Falcon letters which often duplicate his appreciation of Greece, his activities, etc., but there are some gems. Were you in a Sorority of Gangster Girls? His letters home were more reassuring. He apologized to Con for being crabby about the Paris travel office delay on authorizing travel for dependants. His letters home, every few days, may duplicate his journals at the Truman Library and Scott's scan of them here. I'll check this.
